

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN COURT OF APPEALS

State of Minnesota,

Respondent,

vs.

Derek Michael Chauvin,

Appellant.

ORDER

A21-1228

BASED ON THE FILE, RECORD, AND PROCEEDINGS, AND BECAUSE:

1. This appeal was filed by mail on September 20, 2021.
2. In an April 19, 2022 order, this court granted the parties leave to file principal briefs containing up to 17,000 words.
3. On April 25, 2022, appellant served and filed a brief and addendum. Respondent's brief is due on June 9, 2022. See Minn. R. Crim. P. 28.02, subd. 10.
4. On April 29, 2022, respondent filed a motion for an extension until September 7, 2022, to file the brief. The motion indicates that respondent needs additional time to complete the brief because of the voluminous record, the length and complexity of appellant's brief, and respondent's counsel's participation in the upcoming trial of appellant's co-defendants. The motion states that counsel expects the trial of the co-defendants "will last through at least the beginning of August." The motion indicates that appellant does not oppose the requested extension.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Respondent's motion for an extension to file the brief is granted.
2. Respondent's brief shall be served and filed by September 7, 2022.

Dated: May 10, 2022
